

Advertisement for Research Fellow for a collaborative Project

Goa Institute of Management (GIM), Goa invites applications for the post of Research Fellow for a fixed term period.

GIM is collaborating with University of Leeds, UK for a short-term project on “Impact of Covid-19 on management to eradicate modern slavery from global supply chains: A case study of Indian fashion supply chains” funded by the Arts & Humanities Research Council (AHRC), UK.

For this project, we are seeking a Research Fellow to work for a fixed term on contractual basis.

Some details of the project

Category: Research

Vacancy: 01

Salary: Fixed INR 70,000 per month (full time basis)

Tenure: the position is contractual and for fixed term upto 4 months.

Qualifications

The candidate having Ph.D. with a theoretical foundation in management or related social science discipline; expertise in qualitative research; together with some research experience and publications preferably in the area of Corporate Social Responsibility or textile/fashion supply chain and related issues. (Those who have submitted their thesis/final stage of submission can also apply).

Candidates with the knowledge and experience of research/work in Indian textile industry will be preferred.

Specific responsibilities will include (but not exclusive to)

Identifying and conducting online interviews with the Indian textile industry suppliers and some other stakeholders; critically reviewing relevant literature; data analysis and supporting project related other research activities including contributing to research results.

How to apply: You can apply for this role by sending your complete CV (detailing your educational qualification, experience, gender, date of birth, address, skills etc) along with the statement of purpose, clearly stating about your research related experience and publications list and contact details of two referees to msaproject@gim.ac.in latest by 23 Nov 2020

Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed online and the position work will start in December 2020.

To explore the post further or for any queries you may contact the liaison faculty coordinator from GIM and Co-Investigator for this project: Dr. Divya Singhal, Professor, Goa Institute of Management, Goa.

Email: divyasinghal@gim.ac.in